1. Elektrobau Sondershausen is now a Landeseigener Betrieb, currently producing baby carriages and small electric motors of an ordinary type. Any further EBS activity in the field of guided missiles is regarded as unlikely, especially since two of the best former technicians have crossed into the British Zone of Germany. Ing. Karl Röver is living in Wuppertal, where he works for Vorwerk Baum, and Ing. Schäfer is reported to be living in Bad Driburg.
2. The EBS mobile truck laboratory is said to be destined for a firing area north of Stalingrad.
